The financial advice process

We recognise that the objectives and personal circumstances of each client are different.

Where we provide personal advice, we will listen to you to understand your objectives and circumstances. We will also ask questions to make sure we provide advice which is in your best interests.

When we first provide personal advice to you it will be explained thoroughly and documented in a Statement of Advice which you can take away and read.

The Statement of Advice will explain the basis for our advice, the main risks associated with the advice, the cost to you of implementing the advice, the benefits we receive and any conflicts of interest which may influence the advice.

For administration platforms, managed funds and personal risk insurance products we will provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement. This contains information to help you understand the product being recommended.

At all times you are able to contact us and ask questions about our advice and the products we recommend.

You can provide instructions to us in writing, via phone or via email. In some cases, we may require you to provide signed instructions.

We may provide further advice to you to keep your plan up to date for changes in your circumstances, changes in the law and changes in the economy and products.

If we provide further advice it will be documented in a Record of Advice which we retain on file. You can request a copy of the RoA document at any time up to 7 years after the advice is provided.

Fees

All fees are payable to Valor Private Wealth.

Advice Initial Fee

The Advice Initial fee includes meeting with you, the time we take to determine our advice, the production of the SoA and SoA implementation.

The Initial fee is based on the scope and complexity of advice provided to you. We will agree the fee with you before providing you with advice.

If you decide to proceed with our advice, we will let you know what the fee will be in the SoA.

Ongoing Services Fees

Our ongoing service fees depend on the ongoing service that we provide to you. They may be an agreed fixed fee, a percentage of your account balance, a transaction fee or a portfolio performance fee.

The services and fees will be set out in the SoA or RoA that we provide to you.

Commissions

We receive commissions and other benefits from some product providers. The commission or benefit will vary depending on the recommended product and will be documented in the SoA or RoA.
